

SNAPTRACK channel is a nonconductive, rigid PVC device for mounting PCBs'. Circuit boards simply snap in from the front, and are held secure by an integral rib which applies pressure from below. PCBs' can easily be removed for field service if required.

Channel can be mounted on standard din rail when used with the TKAD din rail clip.

Integrity Instruments Inc

DRAWING TITLE

Snap channel dimensions